ANNEXURE

The Bombay Ferries and Inland Vessels Act, 1868 (Bombay Act No. II of 1868) as modified by this notification.

BOMBAY ACT No. II OF 1868

[THE BOMBAY FERRIES ACT, 1868.]

An Act to amend the law relating to public ferries and inland vessels in the Presidency of Bombay.

Preamble.—WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to public ferries and inland vessels in the State of Kutch; It is enacted as follows:—

1. *

2. Chief Commissioner may constitute public ferries, establish new and discontinue existing ferries.—It shall be lawful for the Chief Commissioner to declare by notification what ferries within the Presidency of Bombay shall be deemed public ferries, and also, by notification from time to time, to establish any new public ferry or discontinue any existing public ferry.

2A. Vesting of public ferries in local bodies; Powers of local bodies in respect thereto.—It shall be lawful for the Chief Commissioner to declare by notification in the Official Gazette that any public ferry notified under section 2 shall vest in the local body or jointly in the local bodies, exercising authority over the area or areas, as the case may be, in which such ferry is situate and thereafter such local body or bodies shall exercise in respect of such ferry all the powers specified in the Schedule to this Act:

Provided that the power of exemption under clause (d) of section 3 shall also be exercisable by the Chief Commissioner.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section "local body" means a district local board or a municipality.

3. Rates of toll.—Tolls according to such rates as shall from time to time be approved by the Chief Commissioner, shall be levied upon all passengers, carts, carriages, cattle and other animals, and on all goods and merchandise, carried over any public ferry;

Exemption from toll.—Provided always that no tolls shall be levied from—

- (a) * * * *
- (b) any Police-officer in uniform on duty;
- (c) any person in the custody of the Police;
- (d) any person whom the Chief Commissioner shall, by notification in the Official Gazette deem fit specially to exempt from payment of such tolls.

4. Appointment and salaries, of toll-keepers, etc.—It shall be lawful for the Chief Commissioner to provide for the appointment of toll-keepers, ferrymen and other servants for the management and conduct of any public ferry; and the salaries of such persons shall be defrayed from funds raised under this Act, or from other sources of local revenue, but not from the general * * * revenues * * *.

5. Chief Commissioner may lease public ferries by public auction or private contract.—It shall be lawful for the Chief Commissioner to lease any public ferry by public auction or private contract, from year to year, or for any longer period not exceeding seven years, on such conditions as the Chief Commissioner deems advisable, in which case a contract setting forth the conditions on which the ferry is to be held shall be executed by the contractor or farmer, and security shall be given by him for its due fulfilment, and any pecuniary forfeiture for breach of contract, inserted in the deed of contract or conditions of sale by public auction, as the case may be, may be enforced in the same manner as a demand for the land revenue under the law for the time being in force, so far as applicable.

6. Acts of servant of contractor.—When a public ferry has been duly leased or farmed out, every servant of the lessee, contractor or farmer shall be deemed to be legally bound to do everything necessary for or conducive to the safety of the public which he shall be required to do by any regulation made by the lessee, contractor or farmer, and approved by the Chief Commissioner and of which regulation such servant shall have had notice, and every such servant shall be deemed to be legally prohibited from doing every act which shall be likely to cause danger, and which by any such regulation he shall be prohibited from doing, and every person employed by or on behalf of such lessee, contractor or farmer to do any act upon the ferries shall be deemed to be a servant of the lessee, contractor or farmer.

7. Table of tolls to be hung up.—It shall be the duty of every toll-keeper, toll-contractor or farmer to hang up in some conspicuous place at his ferry-station a table of tolls, written or printed in English and in the language of the district.

8. Penalty in respect to table of tolls.—Any toll-keeper or toll-contractor or farmer, who shall neglect to hang up and keep in good order and repair a table of tolls as aforesaid, or who shall wilfully remove, alter or deface the same, or allow it to become illegible, shall be liable on each conviction to a penalty not exceeding ten rupees.

9. Penalty for taking unlawful toll.—Any toll-keeper or other person appointed as in section 4, who shall neglect to take the due toll, or shall ask or take any toll other than is allowed by the table of tolls, and any toll-contractor or farmer, or any person in the service of a toll-contractor or farmer, who shall ask or take any toll in excess of that allowed by the table of tolls, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees.

10. Penalty for wilful delay.—Any toll-keeper or other person appointed as in section 4, or toll-contractor or farmer or person in the service of a toll-contractor or farmer, who without good reason shall delay any passenger, cart, carriage, animal or goods, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees.

11. Penalty for refusal or evasion of toll and for obstruction or damage.—Any person who shall refuse to pay the lawful toll, or who, with intent of avoiding payment thereof, shall pass through any ferry-station without paying the toll, or who shall obstruct in the execution of his duty any toll-keeper or other person lawfully engaged in the management or conduct of a public ferry, and also any person who shall maliciously damage any toll-bar, boat or other thing belonging to a public ferry, or who shall maliciously remove, alter, destroy or damage any table of tolls hung up as hereinbefore directed, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees, over and above the value of the damage done.

12. Officers who may make rules for regulation of public ferries.—Except in the case provided in sub-section (2) of section 14B, and elsewhere—

(a) in the case of public ferries on roads under the control of the Public Works Department, the State Engineer, and

(b) in all other cases, the Collector of the district,

may, subject to such general directions as the Chief Commissioner from time to time may issue, make rules to determine the number of passengers, carts, carriages and animals, and the quantity of goods, that may be carried in any public ferry-boat at one trip, and for the safe, speedy and convenient carriage and landing of passengers and property, and for keeping the ferry-boats in good order and otherwise for the due discharge of their duty by toll-contractors or farmers, toll-keepers, ferrymen and other persons employed at a public ferry;

and any toll-contractor or farmer, toll-keeper, ferry man or other person infringing or disobeying any such rule shall be liable to make good any loss or damage caused thereby, which loss or damage may be summarily ascertained by any Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the offence was committed, and the amount thereof may be recovered as any penalty under this Act may be recovered.

13           *           *           *           *
14           *           *           *           *

14A. Penalty for conveying passenger etc. along river etc. near toll bridge.—

(1) No person shall without a special licence granted by an officer empowered by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf, convey for hire any passenger, animal, goods or other thing in any vessel on any river, stream, creek, tank, lake or other collection of water affording passage for a vessel between two points both of which are less than three miles distant from a bridge at which under the provisions of any law for the time being in force a toll is leviable on persons, animals, goods or other things.

(2) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall on conviction be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

14B. Penalty for conveying passengers etc. in a ferry boat with a submerged loadline or without prescribed free-board.—(1) Any person who shall convey whether for hire or not, on any river, stream, creek, tank, lake or other collection of water affording passage for a vessel any passenger, animal, goods or other thing in any vessel, of which the prescribed load-line is submerged or of which the free-board is less than the prescribed free-board, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees.

(2) The Chief Commissioner may make rules prescribing the manner in which the load-line or free-board shall be marked upon any vessel to which the provisions of sub-section (1) apply. The rules so made shall be published in the Official Gazette.

14C. Licence required to ply any vessel on any river etc.—No person shall ply any vessel on any river, stream, creek, tank, lake or other collection of water affording passage for a vessel, whether for hire or not, except under a licence granted by an officer empowered by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf and except in accordance with the provisions of this Act, the rules, regulations and orders made thereunder and the conditions of such licence:

Provided that the Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt from the operation of this section such vessels or class of vessels as may be specified in such notification.

14D. Inspection of vessels and suspension of the license if vessels are not seaworthy etc.—Any Magistrate or Police Officer, not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector, or any officer specially empowered by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf may board and inspect any vessel for the purpose of satisfying himself that the provisions of this Act, the rules, regulations and orders made thereunder and the conditions of the licence issued in respect of such vessel are duly observed. If such officer is of the opinion that the vessel is not seaworthy or is insufficiently equipped or is in such a condition that its plying may cause danger to human life or safety, he may suspend the licence issued in respect of such vessel and such vessel shall not thereafter be plied until the order suspending the licence has been cancelled or a fresh licence has been issued in respect of such vessel.

14E. Power to prohibit plying of vessel to avert any accident and to requisition vessels etc.—(1) If any Magistrate, or any Police Officer, not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector, or any officer of the Public Works Department, not below the rank of an Assistant or Deputy Engineer or any officer specially empowered by the Chief Commissioner in this behalf, is at any time of the opinion that in order to avert any accident or danger to human life or safety it is necessary to take action under this sub-section, such Magistrate or officer may by order prohibit the plying of any vessel, or of any class of vessels or of vessels generally on any river, stream, creek, tank, lake or other collection of water affording passage for a vessel, within the limits of his jurisdiction, during such period as may be specified in the order.

(2) Any such Magistrate or officer may by order, within the limits of his jurisdiction, for the purpose of saving any human life or property, requisition the use of any vessel or other property likely to be useful in effecting rescue for such period as may be specified in the order. When any Magistrate or officer requisitions the use of any vessel or other property for any period, there shall be paid to the person deprived of it for the period such amount of compensation as may be determined by the Magistrate or officer. The decision of the Magistrate or the officer regarding the amount of compensation and the person to whom such compensation is payable shall be final.

14F. Penalty for breach of the provisions of the Act, rules regulations and orders made thereunder and the conditions of the licence granted under section 14C.—Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or of the rules, regulations and orders made thereunder or of the conditions of any licence granted under section 14C, shall, on conviction, if no other penalty is provided in the Act for such contravention, be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

14G. Both the owner and the person in charge to be liable for any breach.—If any of the provisions of this Act, or of the rules, regulations or orders made thereunder or of the conditions of the licence granted under section 14C are contravened in respect of any vessel, both the owner and the person in charge of such vessel shall be deemed to have contravened such provisions and shall be personally liable for the same.

15. Trial of offences and recovery of fines.—Offences against this Act shall be inquired into and determined by any Magistrate exercising jurisdiction in the area in which the offence has been committed, and all fines imposed may be levied in the manner provided in section 61 of the Criminal Procedure Code.

17. Chief Commissioner may delegate powers.—The Chief Commissioner may delegate, under such restrictions as may seem fit, any of the powers conferred on it by this Act, ex officio, to any * * * Collector, Magistrate or other person.

17A. Rules and Regulations.—(1) The Chief Commissioner may, after previous publication, make rules for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, such rules may be made for all or any of the following purposes, namely:—

- (a) licensing and regulating vessels, plying, whether for hire or not, on any river, stream, creek, tank, lake or other collection of water affording passage for a vessel, and prescribing the officers by whom and the conditions on which licences for plying such vessels may be granted, suspended or revoked and the fees payable in respect of such licences;
- (b) determining the number of passengers, carts, carriages or animals or the quantity of goods or other things that may be carried in such vessels;
- (c) regulating the carriage and exhibition of lights by such vessels;
- (d) prescribing the fares which may be charged for the carriage of passengers, animals, goods, or other things in such vessels;
- (e) regulating the conduct of passengers in such vessels;

- (f) prescribing the equipment and the number of the crew which must be on board any such vessel when it is plying; and
- (g) generally for securing the safe, speedy and convenient carriage and landing of passengers and cargo in such vessels.
- (3) The District Magistrate may, from time to time, make regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and the rules thereunder—
- (a) regulating the plying of vessels on any river, stream, creek, tank, lake or other collection of water affording passage for a vessel, within the limits of his jurisdiction, and
- (b) for securing the safe, speedy and convenient carriage and landing of passengers in such vessels.

17B. Definition of "vessel".—In this Act, "vessel" shall include anything made for the conveyance by water of human beings, animals or property.

17C. Provisions of section 14A to 14G and 17A and 17B not applicable in certain cases.—Nothing in sections 14A to 14G and 17A and 17B shall apply in respect of any vessel plying on sea or on tidal waters or in any major port, or in respect of any inland steam-vessel as defined in sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Inland Steam-vessels Act, 1917 (I of 1917), or in respect of any vessel plying under a licence issued in exercise of the powers conferred by section 6 of the Indian Ports Act, 1908 (XV of 1908).

18. Short title.—This Act may be cited as the Bombay Ferries and Inland Vessels Act, 1868.

MINISTRY OF FINANCE

New Delhi, the 4th December 1952

S.R.O. 2026.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

1. These rules apply to the following classes of Government servants who are pre-1931 entrants and who have not elected the prescribed scales under rule 3(a) of the Central Civil Services (Revision of Pay) Rules, 1947, namely:—

(a) (i) A Government servant who held on the 30th September, 1948—

- (1) a post of Assistant Secretary and was drawing pay in the scale of Rs. 1,000-50-1,250; or
- (2) a post of Under Secretary and was drawing pay in the scale of Rs. 1,000-50-1,250 plus special pay of Rs. 50 per month; or
- (3) a post of Deputy Secretary and was drawing pay in the scale of Rs. 1,000-50-1,250 plus special pay of Rs. 200 per month;

(ii) a Government servant appointed to any other post during the period from the 1st January 1947 to the 30th September 1948 while holding one of the posts mentioned in sub-clause (i), if it is certified by the appointing authority that he would have held one of those posts on the 30th September, 1948, but for his appointment to the other post;

- (iii) a Government servant who was on leave on the 30th September 1948 if he proceeded on leave from one of the posts mentioned in sub-clause (i) and it is certified by the appointing authority that he would have held that post on the 30th September 1948 but for his being on leave on that date; and
- (b) a Government servant to whom clause (a) does not apply and who is appointed after the 30th September 1948, as Assistant Secretary in the scale of Rs. 1000—50—1250, or as Under Secretary in the scale of Rs. 1000—50—1250 plus a special pay of Rs. 50, or as Deputy Secretary in the scale of Rs. 1000—50—1250 plus a special pay of Rs. 200 per month.
2. (1) A Government servant to whom clause (a) of rule 1 applies shall have the option, either
- (a) to continue to be governed by rules 4 and 5 of the Central Civil Services (Revision of Pay) Rules, 1947; or
  - (b) to elect to become subject to the scales of pay prescribed under those rules either from the 1st January, 1947, or the 16th August, 1947.
- (2) A Government servant who exercises the option in clause (a) of sub-rule (1) shall be eligible to the rates of pay specified in rule 4 while holding the post of Under Secretary or Deputy Secretary, as the case may be.
- (3) The option under sub-rule (1) shall be exercised in writing and communicated to the Accounts Officer of the Government servant concerned so as to reach him not later than the 31st January, 1953. A Government servant who exercises an ambiguous option or refrains from exercising the option before the 31st January, 1953, or whose option does not reach the Accounts Officer before that date, shall be deemed to have exercised the option under clause (a) of sub-rule (1). The option once exercised shall be final.
3. The substantive and officiating pay of a Government servant who exercises the option under clause (b) of sub-rule (1) of rule 2 shall be fixed with effect from the 1st December, 1952, at the rate which would have been admissible to him on that date had the option been exercised under rule 3(a) of the Central Civil Services (Revision of Pay) Rules, 1947, no readjustments being made on this account in respect of pay earned before that date.
4. A Government servant to whom clause (b) of rule 1 applies, shall, on appointment to a post of Under Secretary or Deputy Secretary be eligible to draw pay at the following rates, namely:—
- (i) as Under Secretary—Rs. 1000—50—1250 plus Special Pay Rs. 50 p.m.; and
  - (ii) as Deputy Secretary—Rs. 1000—50—1250 plus Special Pay Rs. 200 p.m.
